positive words for teacher: A Language of Freedom and Teacher's Authority Fatma Mizikaci, Guy Senese, 2017-05-30 A Language of Freedom and Teacher's Authority: Case Comparisons from Turkey and the United States explores dimensions of authority that are deeply embedded in the profession of teaching. It examines critical dimensions of the foundations of Turkish and U.S. public education, both of which are under new pressures due to changes in the relationship between public schooling and current reforms in education. The contributors reflect on varied dimensions of authority, of which ideals are shifting under political and economic pressures. In both Turkey and the U.S, public education reflects the early influence of secular equalitarianism, revolutionary democratic developments, and an Enlightenment-based sense of the human right to education. Against this, we see the opposing dialectic where state control and curricular censorship and constriction appear too often.

positive words for teacher: Waves Within Shashi Dip, 2018-06-19 "I am very happy and proud for the spiritual progress of my student. The sharpness and maturity in her writing, the purity of her thoughts and the ability to explain the depth of various topics, has amazed me greatly. Her insightful writing has touched various aspects of human minds and demonstrated the natural expressions of human qualities, through everyday events. On the other hand, her inner light has kindled a journey within, in search of self. Best of Luck." - Shubhada Rahalkar Head of the Department, Department of Zoology, GDC Bilaspur (CG) "I have known Shashi from 2012 as a blog writer in Speaking Tree. Her forthright, honest and upfront posts on what needs to change in the world and how to go about it always won many hearts. She is regular on the top of the list of 'most read' blogs; her comments appearing in Local newspaper and quoted by other people as well. Shashi is a vigilante in real sense of what the world truly needs not a days. She is quick to note any wrong doings, and take action. Shashi also makes sure that the people around her are well informed. I have never met Shashi, however as it is said nowadays a virtual friend is as close to us as a real friend. She speaks softly, listens intently, suggests rationally and writes with heart. Her posts reflect her ability to pick everyday incidents that are narrated as a story that becomes alive on the piece of paper. I wish her book all the success and hope that it reaches far and wide corners of the world. I wish it be read by as many people as possibly can. Thanks." - Alka Rhode Auckland, New Zealand
